INITIAL INSPECTION

You should always inspect the shipping carton for damages or possible shortages as soon as you receive your unit. If there are any signs of possible shipping damages, unpack the units and make a note of the shortage or damage on the freight bill before signing it. If the carton is opened at a later time and there is damage to the unit, you should file a concealed damage claim with the delivery carrier. They are responsible for any damages in shipment or shortages that were actually shipped.

This warranty extends only to the original purchasers who acquire new products from AIRBOX or its authorized resellers, or to anyone who receives an AIRBOX product as a gift, provided we are able to verify who made the purchase. Before receiving warranty service, AIRBOX or its agents may require that you furnish proof of purchase details, respond to questions designed to assist with diagnosing potential issues, and follow AIRBOX procedures for obtaining warranty service.

SUBJECT TO THE FOREGOING, IN NO EVENT WILL AIRBOX BE LIABLE FOR ANY DAMAGES IN EXCESS OF THE FEES PAID BY YOU IN CONNECTION WITH YOUR USE OF THE SERVICES DURING THE SIX MONTH PERIOD PRECEDING THE DATE ON WHICH THE CLAIM AROSE.

BINDING ARBITRATION AND CLASS ACTION WAIVER

In the event of a dispute, you agree to binding individual arbitration before the American Arbitration Association ("AAA") under the Federal Arbitration Act, and agree not to sue in court in front of a judge or jury. Class action lawsuits, class-wide arbitrations, private attorney-general actions, and any other proceeding where someone acts in a representative capacity are not allowed, nor is combining individual proceedings without the consent of all parties. The term "dispute" is to be construed broadly, and includes any claim or controversy between you and us concerning the Services or these Terms, under any legal theory including contract, warranty, tort, statute, or regulation.

If you have a dispute, send a Notice of Dispute by U.S. Mail to: AIRBOX, LLC 2213 Ranch Road 620N, Suite 104, Austin, Texas 78734, including your name, address, how to contact you, what the problem is, and what you want. After 60 days, you (or we) may start an arbitration if the dispute remains unresolved. You must file any claim or dispute within one year from when it first could be filed. Otherwise, it's permanently barred. These Terms govern to the extent they conflict with the AAA's Commercial Arbitration Rules or Consumer Arbitration Rules. If the class action waiver is found to be illegal or unenforceable as to all or some parts of a dispute, then those parts will not be arbitrated but will proceed in court, with the rest proceeding in arbitration.

GENERAL

No AIRBOX reseller, agent, or employee is authorized to make any modification, extension, or addition to this Warranty. If any term is held to be illegal or unenforceable, the legality or enforceability of the remaining terms shall not be affected or impaired. This Warranty is governed by and construed under the laws of the State of Texas, and you hereby consent to the exclusive jurisdiction of the state courts in Travis County, Texas. AIRBOX or its successor in title is the warrantor under this Warranty. Any future claims regarding your AIRBOX product are governed by this Warranty. However, AIRBOX reserves the right, as a general matter, to change its warranty policies. If you make any future purchases of AIRBOX products, those products may be governed by different warranty policies.
